Dear Jeff:

On behalf of Open Communities, I am happy to wholeheartedly recommend you to any individual or organization seeking a videographer.

You may recall that you videotaped a very important event for us: the unveiling of our new name, brand, and mission before over 100 supporters and members of the public. As an organization that works for social justice on the North Shore, it was very important to us to be able to convey enthusiasm and an open invitation to all to join in our work. You were able to do this in a professional, reliable and cost-efficient manner.

We proudly have your videos of our October 28, 2012 "Open Up!" event at the DoubleTree in Skokie featuring our two keynote speakers, Dr. Alan Ray, President of Elmhurst College, and Dawn Turner Trice, columnist for the Chicago Tribune, as well as my own introduction of Open Communities, on our web site at <http://open-communities.org/Resources/Videos/>. Feel free to share this.

Thank you once again for your great job in memorializing our event.

Sincerely,

Gail Schechter
 Executive Director
